MARCH 2023

From the Pastor's Pen:

WOW! What a wonderful church family we have! Mary and I want to thank each of you for all the prayers you offered on our behalf during my last surgery. My surgeon had a prayer with me before the surgery and I am positive that helped him as he performed my procedure. I have done unbelievably well and was able to be discharged from the hospital in three days.

Again we thank you for not only the prayers, but for the cards, calls, texts and food!

I am looking forward to being back in the pulpit soon!

Love in Christ,

Pastor Gene

(For your information:)

Lorene will be out of the office March 1 & 2. The office will be closed as the church is having flooring placed in the Pastor's office as well as the church office and workroom. The file cabinets and much of the furniture will be moved to nearby rooms and hopes to be back in place by Sunday, March 5. We plan to be back up and running on Monday March 6.

200 MILLIONTH SHOEBOX DELIVERED

On January 25, 2023 the 200 millionth shoebox was delivered in war torn Ukraine to a young girl named Natalya. The box was delivered by a Ukrainian woman who received a shoebox as a child when all in her life was “rock bottom”. She said she was alone but Jesus met her and has never left her.

This year more than 400,000 shoeboxes will be distributed throughout the Ukraine.

We will continuing collecting the following for the month of March:

Washcloths and soap toothbrushes (no toothpaste please),
hairbrushes, combs, and hair accessories

Please remember no liquids or creams are allowed.

We will continue to accept t-shirts for jump ropes.
